

As a member of the general public, I feel very strongly that all forms of media need to be protected from ownership crossover both horizontally and vertically. Local ownership and independent programming is vital for to communication and necessary to maintain integrity of freedom of speech.